RECAPITULATION. HAD HIS EYE TEETH CUT.

How B. R. Barmore is Said to Have Been

Fleeced by a Married Woman-Thought He Was Writing to a Dear Girl. United States District Attorney Alcorn Seymour Hitchcock and his wife, Sarah A. Hitchcock, for using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes. The indictment will be presented to the grand jury this week at Williamsport, where the United States Court is in session. The case is one unearthed by the Postoffice Inspector at Meadville. Last May B. R. Barmore, a middle-aged and well-to-do resident of Chicago, noticed an advertisement in the papers for a correspondence with a young lady in Meadville with a view to matrimony. Barmore wrote

Meanwhile the Postoffice Inspector at Meadville had noticed the many letters passing between the two, and his suspicions were aroused. He wrote to Barmore, and the latter, realizing how he had been fooled, sent all the letters he had received from his dear Sarah to the Inspector. The latter lodged an information, charging Sarah and her husband, Seymour Hitchcock, who is accused of being a party to the affair, with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. They were arrested and held for

The Johns Hopkins University is in Financial Trouble, but Can Hold Out for Three Years-Some Very Timely Gifts of Great Assistance. BALTIMORE, September 12 .- In view of the reports which have recently been published respecting the Johns Hopkins University, President Gilman authorizes the statement that the university will begin its new year on the 1st of October with unimpaired efficiency. Neither the salaries of the President nor those of the professors have been cut, and several new appointments have been made. The indications point to the usual number of students, and the course of instruction will be given as announced in the programme. As to the finances of the university it is no secret that the income derived from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was cut off some time ago, but the accumulated income of former years, the income from invest-ments outside of the railroad, the income from tuition (which amounted last year to nearly $40,000) are available. Besides all this generous persons have subscribed the sum of $108,000 to be expended as an emergency fund during the next three years. A new building, given by Eugene Levering, of Baltimore, is now going up. A lectureship in literature has been endowed by a gift of $20,000. By the bequest of John W. McCoy, the university inherits his library of 8,000 volumes, and is the residuary legatee of his estate, estimated at above $100,000, exclusive of the library. It is safe to say that within six months the Johns Hopkins University has received from these various sources nearly $300,000, and other gifts are expected. The national character of the interday prepared an indictment against | stitution is a strong reason why its work should receive important aid from a distance. It will thus be seen that no consideration need be given to alarming rumors, as the present efficiency of the uni-versity is assured for the next three years, SACRAMENTO, CAL., September 12 .- W. F. Lamar and J. Boyd were arrested here to-day by Sonoma county officers, and taken to Santa Rosa to answer to the charge of burglary. The house of Isaac Parsons, a wealthy resident of Santa Rosa, was entered about three weeks ago and $40,000 worth of valuable papers, including certificates of pank stock, mortgages, notes and checks, were stolen.

Officers have been investigating the case, and connected Lamar and Boyd with the burglary. The papers were all recovered from a saloon keeper with whom they had been left by Lamar, with instructions to deliver them to Boyd.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR A NEW YORK, September 12.-Frank W. Savin, the busy member of the Stock Exchange whose office is at 24 New street, has made himself well known in Wall Street by his pugnacious habits and his frequent disagreements with business associates. He is fond of settling all his battles with his fists, but he has got an antagonist now whom he cannot invite to a settlement in the manner of the prize ring. He is involved in a row with a woman. Legal proceedings were instituted in the Supreme Court chambers to compel Mr. Savin to transfer the property, 236 West Forty-fifth street, to the woman who now lives there, or else to pay to her the sum of $27,500 as equivalent "for services rendered." Such is the language of the complaint, and it is based upon the allegation that in December, 1883, Mr. Savin and the complainant agreed to live together, he agreeing to provide for her and to give her "such compensation as should be adequate to her services." DIDN'T COMPENSATE HER. This complainant, only known in the case as Mrs. Savin, declares that Mr. Savin never paid her any stated sum, though she at sundry times reminded him of his promise to do so; and that when she insisted upon some more definite arrangement, one day in 1886, he agreed to transfer the property which she occupied to her, but never did so, She goes on to say that they lived together until August 2 last, on which date Mr. Savin told her that he should not need her "services" any longer, and that he has been trying ever since to oust her from her home. She is not disposed to take dismissal as an ordinary "housekeeper and companion," but begs the court to direct Mr. Savin to execute a legal transfer of the property, or to pay her the sum of $27,500, which she claims to be rightfully due her as arrearages in the account of "services rendered." NICE HOUSE AND PRETTY OCCUPANT. No. 236 West Forty-fifth street is located between Seventh and Eighth avenues. It is a brown stone, high stoop dwelling, three stories high. A reporter of THE DISPATCH called at the house this morning, and in-quired for "Mrs. Savin." He saw the woman who answers to the name. She said she did not care to discuss the matter, and begged to be excused from answering all questions. Mrs. Savin seemed greatly agitated while talking. Mrs. Savin is a little woman, with bright, hazel eyes. Her hair, while not black, is so dark that she might be called a brunette. Had her eves not been red and swollen from weeping Mrs. Savin might have been called even more than pretty. She was attired in a very becoming morning gown, of a light blue fabric, trimmed with white lace at the throat, at the wrists, and down the front of the skirt. While apparently she was not only willing but anxious to tell the story of her sorrows she told the reporter she had been advised not to talk about the case.

NEITHER WILL TA "I refer you," she said, "to my lawyer, Henry Daily, Jr., of 150 Broadway. He knows all about my troubles." Mr. Daily was not at his office this forenoon. Frank W. Savin was not at his office when a reporter called to interview him. A little later on he was found on 'Change. Mr. Savin is a dapper little man, with a very dark complexion. He glories in a rather diminutive black mustache. He dresses neatly and wears a high silk hat, but there is nothing in his personal appearance to indicate that he is a millionaire. He He declined to discuss the scandal hovering over him, in any of its phases, and wouldn't

"I am too busy to talk about it" was his last remark, as he darted in among a crowd of brother brokers, some of whom were not "too busy" to wonder how Savin was going

SHE HAD CONSUMPTION!

SO THE DOCTORS SAID "I had a short, hacking cough, tightness in the chest, short breath, and I felt tired all the time. As I grew weaker I suffered with those terrible night sweats. My father took me to 20 physicians who said I could not be cured. I doctored with many physicians, but got no better. After 14 years of suffering I began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, 323 Penn avenue, to whom I owe my recovery. My cough is gone, I have no dizziness, ringing in the ears, head-I have no dizziness, ringing in the ears, headache or night sweats any more. The pain and soreness in my stomach have lett me. My food digests well, so that now no gas forms in my stomach. My throat used to be so sore I could hardly swallow. That is cured. I feel well and strong, and why should I not praise these doctors for thus saving me from such an untimely death?" MISS LY DIA MORGAN, Kearsarge st. near Virging, on Mt Washington sarge st., near Virginia, on Mt. Washington

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. "INTIME OF PEACE

PREPARE FOR WAR." is a saying that holds good of commercial as well as martial affairs.

Some weeks ago, when the weather was hot and everybody's attention, as far as apparel was concerned, was centered in Seersucker Coats and manufactured, caused to be manufactured and bought the grand, vast and elegant Fall Stock they now show, and thus, while other dealers are just awakening to the fact that another season stands at the threshold and is beginning to make its requirements felt, Kaufmanns' are readyready in all the word implies-with anything and everything in the way of Autumn Clothing required by custom and approved by fashion.

IN BOYS' CLOTHING, IN PARTICULAR we are showing some truly marvelously pretty designs that cannot help but interest the mothers. IN KILT SUITS, sizes 2 to 6, we exhibit some entirely new, unique and lovely styles. Combination Kilts are quite the thing this fall and we have them, including the very latest Parisian

IN SHORT PANT SUITS, our stock is radiant and brilliant with all that is new and novel, neat and nice, natty and nobby. Wish that every mother could call and see how well we are prepared to administer to the wants of the little ones. IN LONG PANT SUITS, sizes 10 to 19, our stock is far ahead of anything of the kind ever shown in this city. Suits in the jaunty single and double breasted sack styles, cutaway or square cut, as well as cutaway frock and Prince Albert styles, made of the stylish and serviceable Clay Diagonals and Worsteds, Scotch Cheviots, Broad Wales, Cassimeres, etc.

MEN'S FALL SUITS, FALL OVERCOATS

Our display consists of counter after counter, each one weighted down with choice and select styles. And remember this important fact: We don't keep anything trashy, no shoddy, no poorly made goods, no questionable dyes. We make it our inflexible rule to subject every garment to a thorough examination before placing it in stock, and nothing that we cannot honestly recommend for the price finds counter room in our store. Under these circumstances the satisfaction (almost) invariably given by our clothing is no matter of surprise.

prices catch the dashing "bloods" as well as the sober, sensible business men. Our stock of imported Woolens is now at high water mark, hence

Our Hat Bazaar is patronized by all who desire first-class and fashionable headgear at low prices. Our stock of Men's Silk Hats, Derbys, Soft Hats, Crush Hats and Traveling Hats leaves nothing to be Boots and Shoes. .. To patronize our shoe department once means a steady customer for us. We are bound to give satisfaction to wearers of our Shoes. If any pair should not turn out as represented, a new pair will be given for it free of charge. Dare any other shoe dealer make this offer? Hardly.

OUR COUNTRY COUSINS, visiting the Pittsburg Exposition, are invited to call and make themselves AT HOME at our store. They're welcome,
